Story

In the year 2XXX, the "Balangool empire rampages through space at will and invades one planet after another. The evil hands are finally reaching towards the planet earth. You are a lonely astronaut in space. You must penetrate the enemy base, which is divided into sections from A to Z, and must destroy "L-Brain" in final target section Z. Urgent order!! Destroy the secret base of tne "Balangool" empire!

Can you carry out this vital mission!

How to Operate

Maneuver the player with the 8-way lever and the two buttons. Use Button 1 to fire continuously at the enemies on both sides and also to drop bombs. Turn the player right or left with Button 2.

Power up Technique

If the [illegible] gleaning at the top part of the screen is de[illegible], flickering coins will appear. The player can increase power and speed by taking these coins and will also win bonus points.

- B → Chance to increase points.
- P → Quick firing power advances three steps.
- S → Player's speed advances three steps.
